Year	Progression of Skills in History at Tweseldown Infant School	National Curriculum Requirements
R	Ia. Chronology – Know when their birthday is. Ib. Chronology – Know and use the days of the week. Id. Chronology – Begin to use the correct past and present vocabulary (there may be inconsistencies e.g. goed) 3a. Continuity and Change – Know and understand that all people were babies once 3b. Continuity and Change – Know and understand that people and animals change as they grow 5a. Historical Significance – Know and talk about months of the year that are important to them 5b. Historical Significance – Know names of family members and friends 5c. Historical Significance – Talk about a special event that has happened to them, their family or friends, e.g. celebrations/birthdays 5d. Historical Significance – Know and understand how family members are linked e.g. Grandma is Mummy's Mummy 5e. Historical Significance – Begin to know that a person can be more than one thing to one person e.g. their Daddy is also Grandma's son 6a. Interpretation – Understand that something has happened and when something is going to happen 6b. Interpretation – Understand the past 7a. Historical Enquiry – Be able to answer a question	EYFS ELG Understanding the World – Past and Present 1. Talk about the lives of people around them and their roles in society 2. Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class 3. Understaning the past through settings, characters, and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling
	7b. Historical Enquiry – Be able to ask a question 7c. Historical Enquiry - Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now
I	 Ia. Chronology – Create a simple timeline to sequence processes, events, objects within their own experiences. Ib. Chronology – Confidently use vocabulary associated with the past, e.g. old and new, then and now. 2a. Characteristic Features – Recognises that buildings, clothing, transport, technology could be different in the past. 2b. Characteristic Features – Shows awareness of significant features not seen today. 3a. Continuity and Change - Can match old objects to people or situations from the past. 3b. Continuity and Change – Can describe how some aspects of life today differ from the past using simple historical vocabulary. 4. Cause and Consequence – Can give simple explanations why a person from the past acted as they did and talk about the consequences of those actions. 5. Historical significance – Can recognise and describe special times or events for family and friends. 6. Historical Interpretation – Can identify and talk about different accounts of real historical situations. 7a. Historical Enquiry – Can talk about similarities and differences between two or more sources using simple historical terms. 7b. Can talk about past events and use annotations or captions (maybe scribed) to identify important features of 	 1. Children should be taught about significant historical events, people and places in their own locality. 2. Children should know where the people and events they study fit within a chronological framework 3. Children should be able to identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods. 4. Children should be taught about changes within living memory 5. Children should be taught about events beyond living memory that are significant nationally 6. Children should be taught about the lives of significant individuals who have contributed to national achievements 7. Children should have an awareness of common words and phrases linking to the passing of time 8. Children should be able to ask and answer questions 9. Children should be able to use parts of a story to show they understand key features
2	picture sources, artefacts, etc. Ia. Chronology – Realises that historians use dates to describe events. Ib. Chronology – Use phrases describing intervals of time e.g. before, after, at the same time, etc. 2a. Characteristic Features – Recognises and describes, in simple terms, some characteristics features of a person or period studied. 2b. Characteristic Features – Increasingly uses period specific language in explanations. 3. Continuity and Change – Can talk about similarities and differences not just between then and now but between then and another then. 4. Cause and Consequence – Can describe in simple terms the cause and/or the consequence of an important historical event offering more than one example of its result. 5 Historical Significance – Can recognise and talk about who was important e.g. in a simple historical account. 6. Historical Interpretation – Can identify and talk about differences in accounts relating to people or events both from the time (primary source) and from the present (secondary source) 7a. Historical Enquiry – Can gather information from simple sources to ask and answer questions about the past 7b. Can explain events and actions rather than just retell a story	 of events I.Children should be taught about significant historical events, people and places in their own locality. Children should know where the people and events they study fit within a chronological framework Children should be able to identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods. Children should be taught about changes within living memory and where appropriate these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life Children should be taught about events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally Children should be taught about the lives of significant individuals who have contributed to national and international achievements Children should use a wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms Children should be able to ask and answer questions and understand key features of events	9. Children should be able to use parts of a story or other sources to show they know

---------------------------------------	---

Throughout Early Years and Key Stage I children should have expose to the following 7 key historical skills;

- I. Chronology
- 2. Characteristic Features
- 3. Continuity and Change
- 4. Cause and Consequence
- 5. Historical Significance
- 6. Historical Interpretation
- 7. Historical Enquiry